Join HADCA Today Membership is Free

We aim to have a large and diverse membership to help us to campaign and advocate with and on behalf of the local voluntary sector. Join us to make a positive difference in the Harrogate District. Members can vote at our AGM and have a say in how HADCA is run.

Being a HADCA Member means:

- Being part of a growing network with a shared sense of community meeting the needs of local people
- Strengthening the voice of the Harrogate District voluntary sector working together to enable local people to benefit from leading fulfilling and active lives and making a positive contribution to community life
- Regular Newsletters packed with resources, local news and events, funding and training opportunities
- For our Full Members:
- Free job adverts, volunteer role advertising, promotion of your events and services
- Reduced rates for equipment hire and other office services

Who can join?

Full Membership is open to charitable organisations and community groups working in the Harrogate District. Individual Membership is open to individuals in our communities, public and private sector colleagues working in the Harrogate District who wish to show their support for HADCA and local voluntary action.

What does it cost to join?

Membership of HADCA is free. However, an annual contribution to help with the costs of the support services we provide is always welcome.

How to Join

You can join us online at: www.hadca.org.uk.org/HADCA-membership or contact us for a form, which you can return by post or email.
