Deadline: Apply anytime.

Further information: <http://allenlane.org.uk/>

Awards for All

Purpose: This National Lottery funded programme aims to bring real improvements to communities and to the lives of people most in need. It funds projects that involve people in their communities, bringing them together to enjoy a wide range of charitable, community, educational and environmental and health-related activities.

Who can apply: Not-for-profit groups, community groups, parish and town councils, schools and health bodies.

Level of funding: £300 - £10,000.

Deadline: Apply anytime.

Further information: <http://www.awardsforall.org.uk/england/index.html>

Bailey Thomas Charitable Fund

Purpose: To provide both research and project funding in the area of learning disability and to aid the care and relief of those affected by learning disability. The Trust consider under learning disability the conditions generally referred to as severe learning difficulties, together with autism. In this area, they consider projects concerning children or adults. The type of activities currently funded include: capital works for residential, nursing and respite care; employment schemes including woodwork, crafts, printing and horticulture; day and social activities centres including building costs and running costs; support for families, including respite schemes; Independent Living Schemes; support in the community schemes. Applications for research projects will only be considered from established research workers and will be subject to normal professional peer review procedures.

Who can apply: Registered charities or organisations associated with a registered charity. Industrial & Provident Societies can also apply.

Level of funding: Funding is normally considered for capital and revenue costs and for both specific projects and for general running/core costs. Previous projects supported have ranged from £250 to £150,000.

Deadline: For grants over £10,000 1 March and 1 August. Applications for projects up to £10,000 can apply anytime.

Further information: <http://www.bailythomas.org.uk/>

Brelms Trust

Purpose: To support charities for capital costs relating to projects that assist individuals in their return to mainstream society, rather than simply offer shelter or other forms of sustenance.

Who can apply: small and medium-sized registered charities

Level of funding: Up to £5,000

Deadline: Quarterly 15 March; 15 June; 15 September; 15 December every year

Further information:
<http://www.help-the-homeless.org.uk/>

Ibrahim Foundation

Purpose: To improve the quality of life for people and communities in the UK, both now and in the future. They like to consider work which others may find hard to fund, perhaps because it breaks new ground, appears too risky, requires core funding, or needs a more unusual form of financial help such as a loan. The Foundation has always believed in the need to support and maintain a free, stable and socially cohesive society, where enterprise is encouraged and people are able to realise their potential, take advantage of opportunities and play their part in democratic life. They look for situations where small amounts of funds will make significant impact. However, they are particularly interested in the following areas: community building, strengthening nonprofits, environment, supporting families

Who can apply: Not for profit organisations.

Level of funding: The grants range from £500 – £10,000. Extraordinary projects may receive grants up to £50,000.

Deadline: Applications can be submitted at any time.

Further information: <http://www.ibrahimfoundation.com/apply.html>

Inman Charity

Purpose: To support charities that carry out medical, social welfare or general welfare activities with disadvantaged people, including disabled people, older people, in hospices and from the Armed Forces.

Who can apply: Registered charities

Level of funding: £1,500 to £5,000. In exceptional cases, a higher grant may be awarded.

Deadline: Applications must be received by the end of February or the end of August each year to be considered at the Spring or Autumn meetings. Next deadline 31st August

Further information:

<http://www.inmancharity.org/>

Leeds Building Society Charitable Foundation

Purpose: To support communities around its nationwide network of branches by making donations to charities working in those areas. Generally, the Foundation will consider applications for community based projects which aim to provide relief of suffering, hardship or poverty, or their direct consequences.

Who can apply: Registered charities

Level of funding: Grants in the range of £250 to £1,000.

Deadline: Applications can be submitted at any time. The Trustees meet quarterly in March, June, September and November.

Further information:

<http://www.leedsbuildingsociety.co.uk/your-society/about-us/charitable-foundation/>

Lloyds Bank Foundation

Purpose: To provide funding for projects to help people break their cycle of disadvantage. There are two funding programmes: 'Invest' a flexible, long term core funding programme for charities helping disadvantaged people; 'Enable' a smaller and shorter grants programme for charities that have identified clear development needs. This funding aims to help the organisations deliver their mission more effectively. Organisations are expected to be working with people experiencing multiple disadvantage at one of the critical points in their life.

Who can apply: Registered charities and charitable incorporated organisations with an income of between £25,000 and £1 million.

Funding: Invest: £10,000 to £25,000 per year for 2-3 years with the opportunity for further funding for up to 6 years in total. Enable: up to £15,000 over 2 years.

Deadline: Invest – funding is open for short periods annually and are announced on the funder's website; Enable apply any time.
